Giving

We often speak of God as a “Natural Order of Things,”
or a, “Flow,” that knows what It’s doing!

As such, we are simultaneously both inlets and outlets for that natural order, for that flow, whether expressed in tangible or intangible ways.

Said another way, the spiritual universe is really quite fluid and reciprocal.

Hence, the common temptations of greed, envy, hoarding and the like are quite antagonistic to spiritual health for they are quite antagonistic to the fluid and reciprocal nature of the spiritual universe!

The encouragement of this card, then, is for you to cultivate right relationship with giving and receiving as a return to cooperation with the fluid and reciprocal universe in which we live.

Giving rightly, you see,
is just another practice of spiritual health.

Welcome!

The word tithe means “a tenth.” For some, to tithe conjures fear! And we understand that. Very few people launch their giving journey by tithing. Hence, we encourage you to begin with an amount that conjures excitement and fulfillment instead.

Unity in Lynnwood is supported by freely given tithes and offerings.
In advance, thank you for taking your journey with us.

Understand your giving as a PRAYER.

Whether writing a check for groceries or clicking a donation button, give purely, unconditionally and faithfully as an affirmation of your trust in divine sufficiency.

Understand your giving as an INVESTMENT.

Your spiritual growth, development and unfoldment deserves your investment as that spiritual foundation valuable beyond measure.

Understand your giving as a VOTE.

Give to those organizations which share and further your commitments to a better world.

Understand your giving as a PRACTICE.

Allow this dynamic giving journey to avail you to the new possibilities inherent within any new commitment.

Understand your giving as an ENERGY.

Always give with love. Always.
